Acknowledgment

We have reviewed and firmly endorsed the content of this Equity and Inclusion Plan. We are committed to ensuring equal employment opportunity, freedom from discrimination, and affirmative action in compliance with state laws and policies and federal laws. By formally integrating equity and inclusion values and practices into existing processes, the Equity and Inclusion Plan enables progress and results to be measured agency-wide.

Wisconsin Historical Society Equity and Inclusion Commitment Letter

The Wisconsin Historical Society and Foundation (hereafter referred to as WHS) who's mission to connect people to the past by collecting, preserving, and sharing stories, hereby reaffirms our commitment to the principles of equity and inclusion for all employees and applicants without regard to an individual's race, color, sex, sexual orientation, sex identity, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, or marital status.

The WHS is firmly committed to meeting the state laws and policies and federal laws for equal employment opportunity and affirmative action. WHS recognizes that equal employment opportunity is a legal, organizational, and economic necessity to ensure equity and diversity of the state's workforce. This commitment extends to all job applicants and employees in every type of position, including unclassified, classified, project, limited-term, volunteers, interns, and work-study personnel, and to Wisconsin Historical Foundation employees where applicable.

As part of the WHS's commitment to this overall process, we intend to apply equity and inclusion principles to all employment policies, procedures, and programs. To ensure equal employment opportunity and freedom from discrimination, including recruitment, selection, job assignment, training, compensation, benefits, discipline, promotion, transfer, layoff, and termination processes. Employees and applicants with disabilities will receive reasonable accommodation.

WHS has developed and committed to maintaining a written Equity and Inclusion Plan. This Equity and Inclusion Plan has our total support, and the WHS pledges its best good faith efforts to achieve the goals identified in the Equity and Inclusion Plan. I expect each manager, supervisor, and employee of the WHS to aid in the implementation of this program and be accountable for complying with the objectives of this Equity and Inclusion Plan. WHS will maintain a monitoring and reporting system to ensure compliance with the equity and inclusion mandates. The plan is available for review on the WHS website or at the Human Resources office.

We look forward to working with the Division of Personnel Management, Bureau of Equity and Inclusion, to implement our policies and programs to correct the present effects of past discrimination and build a motivated and skilled workforce that reflects the population we serve.

Introduction (Alignment with Vision, Mission, and Values)

The Wisconsin Historical Society and Foundation (hereafter referred to as WHS) is committed to being a diverse, equitable, inclusive, and accessible organization because we truly believe this is the most effective way to attract, engage, and retain the best talent and the most meaningful way to serve Wisconsin's diverse population and communities. The unique characteristics and abilities of each employee are part of the fabric that helps make WHS an exciting, enriching environment in which to work.

This is exemplified in the WHS Mission, Vision, Core Values, and Strategic Framework.

MISSION: The Wisconsin Historical Society connects people to the past by collecting, preserving, and sharing stories.

VISION: Enriching and transforming lives through unparalleled access to history.

CORE VALUES:

- Embrace a Spirit of Service - Willing to help others – whether they reach out or an opportunity arises – for the good of the whole. The whole could be the WHS, our constituents, Wisconsin communities, and beyond.
- Engage Our Expertise - Reach across divisions to harness others' diverse skills, talents, and knowledge to produce high quality work. Be resourceful in the pursuit of new knowledge and ideas. Our collective expertise is a buildable, shareable, and usable resource. These ideas can include breaking down barriers, building opportunities, cultivating community connections, and enhancing our state's legacies as the WHS moves "Forward."
- Spark Enthusiasm - Approach our work with passion and dedication to inspire others and make transformative change. Champion the programs and projects that are important to our coworkers, stakeholders, and community members.
- Cultivate Inclusion - Create and foster a safe and welcoming environment for all people and communities. Commit to making the WHS an equitable, diverse, inclusive, and accessible community. Our dedication to inclusion extends to the stories we collect, preserve, and share, and our relationships with the diverse communities in Wisconsin.
- Exceed Expectations - To the best of our abilities and resources, provide support to colleagues, stakeholders, and communities that allow us to rise to the challenges of being a premiere North American history organization.
- Think Big and Grow with Purpose - Chart a sustainable organizational future through commitment to our organizational values with a critical eye to our past and our present. Work in innovative ways that prioritize and cultivate curiosity, vision, and creativity

We use the Core Values to guide the work that we do across all areas of WHS. Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accountability (DEIA) is a top priority for our employees and for the communities in which we partner, which is especially evident in our value to Cultivate Inclusion, as described above.

WHS Strategic Framework

1. Expand the stories we collect, preserve, and share
2. Ignite a Digital Transformation
3. Strengthen and sustain connections to history statewide, and beyond
4. Modernize our Workplace and Workforce Culture

WHS has worked extensively to build a Strategic Framework to provide priority, direction, and accountability to agency operations. Each division and the Foundation developed goals and action items to align with these strategies. Where applicable, items identified in division strategic planning have been included on the EI plan for awareness, tracking and measuring.

Internally, strategic goals for current and future WHS employees include:

Modernize our Workplace and Workforce Culture

- Develop recruitment strategies that attract a diverse and capable workforce
- Empower employees to feel greater ownership for their work
- Improve the utilization of our workspace to increase employee experience and effectiveness
- Ensure clear and consistent internal communications at all levels of the organization to provide clarity on priorities and initiatives
- In alignment with WHS values, develop and communicate standards and expectations for how we communicate, collaborate, and support our colleagues and teams

Ignite a Digital Transformation

- Invest in technology that increases accessibility to our collections – digital assets, content, website, etc.
- Leverage data to drive decisions and improve operations – workforce, financial, programmatic

Critical to the success of overall workforce culture strategy, the Workforce and Culture Program Officer, HR, WHS Leadership, the Agency Equity and Inclusion Committee (IDEA Team), and other workgroups collaborated to develop, and will implement, the 2024-2026 Equity and Inclusion Plan as outlined in Ch 43. to ensure equal opportunity and to advance DEIA strategies in recruitment, retention, and agency culture.

To assist with this effort, WHS recently hired a new Agency Equity and Inclusion Program and Policy Manager (Workforce and Culture Program Officer) in May 2023 to coordinate and advance DEIA in recruitment, retention, and agency culture, along with developing and implementing a comprehensive employee engagement strategy. This is in addition to the duties of the HR Director (EI Officer), which include ensuring equal opportunity in recruitment and selection, overseeing respectful workplace, FMLA, and reasonable accommodation policies, and other responsibilities related to EI, such as onboarding, offboarding, and leveraging data to drive decision making. HR is currently in the process of developing and leveraging data dashboards to assist in recruitment efforts.

WHS also built more structure around the roles and responsibilities of the IDEA Team in spring of 2023, developed a comprehensive charter, and recruited several additional members (a 200% increase in membership). This re-energized team, which, also functions as the Planning, Development, and Implementation Team, met in the summer of 2023 to develop, and recommend goals, strategies, and action items for inclusion in the 2024-2026 EI plan related to recruitment, retention, and agency culture. The Workforce and Culture Program Officer, the HR Director (EI Officer), the WHS Directors, and the WHS Senior Leadership Team (SLT) were also given the opportunity to recommend goals, strategies, and action items incorporated into the plan. The contributions from both the IDEA Team, subject matter experts, leadership, and also the analysis of workforce data and feedback were important to strengthen the overall plan and ensure buy-in as the plan is implemented over the next 3 years.

Through collections, and externally, strategic goals include:

Expand the stories we collect, preserve, and share.

- Fulfill state, federal, and public service mandates
- Deliver mission-based experiences
- Open the new Wisconsin History Center
- Enhance the experiences at our historic sites and throughout the state

Strengthen and sustain connections to history statewide, and beyond through:

- Community engagement and participation
- Relationships with partners, stakeholders, affiliate organizations, and PK12 education
- Increased advocacy and philanthropic support

Our Division of Museums and Historic Sites (DMHS), Programs and Outreach Division, and Library, Archives, Museums Collections (LAMC) Division mainly own these goals and action items, as they relate to DEIA, and have the responsibility to implement and measure results. However, they have been added to the EI Plan for awareness and tracking purposes. One outcome we strive for is that by strengthening connections to communities, telling of inclusive stories, and ensuring underrepresented stories are told, this will open a pipeline for current and future recruitments; That this inclusiveness will attract individuals from all diverse backgrounds who want to engage with WHS and be part of this journey.

WHS Workforce Analysis Summary

Quantitative and qualitative workforce data summaries, and corresponding analysis are listed below. The resources used include data from reports provided by DOA-DPM-Bureau of Equity and Inclusion, and data that has been collected internally through surveys, table exercises and listening sessions.

DOA Employee Demographic Dashboard Summary

Permanent, Unclassified – Q2 2023

All Employee Types (LTE, Permanent, Unclassified, Project) – Q2 2023

WHS Workforce, State of WI Workforce, and State of WI Census Comparison

WHS Workforce Data Analysis – Percent Racial/Ethnic Minorities and Women, Persons with Disabilities*
	Persons with Disabilities*	Women	Racial/Ethnic Minorities
WHS - all EE types (Q2 2023)	4.0%	61.1%	6.5%
WHS - permanent, unclassified (Q2 2023)	6.5%	53.6%	5.9%
State of WI Workforce (2022)	7.5%	52.2%	15.3%
State of WI Census (2020)	8.1%	49.8%	19.6%

*self-reported

References: DOA Employee Demographic Dashboard (previous charts), State of Wisconsin Classified Workforce & Affirmative Action, FY2021-2022, <https://www.census.gov/quickfacts/fact/table/WI/PST045222>

The dashboard data and the workforce data comparison demonstrate WHS employs:

- 1.0% less persons with disabilities* (permanent, unclassified) than State of WI workforce
- 1.4% more woman (permanent, unclassified) than State of WI workforce
- 10.2% less racial/ethnic minorities (permanent, unclassified) than State of WI workforce

WHS has made significant strides in telling Wisconsin history through an inclusive lens and has expanded its outreach to more and more communities. One outcome we strive to achieve is for WHS to be an attractive employer for individuals from all backgrounds because they see themselves represented in the work that we do. WHS will continue its efforts to recruit and hire racial/ethnic minorities. All FTE recruitments are under the assumption that the position is underutilized.

State Underutilization Report 2023

As identified in the State Underutilization Report 2023, minorities were underutilized in job group 195 – Administrative Support, specifically for WHS in 2020. As of 2023, this has been remedied. Women were underutilized in job code 044 – Planning, Policy, and Research, specifically in WHS in 2023. Though all FTE recruitments are considered underutilized, WHS will pay specific attention to this job classification.

WHS Employee Engagement Surveys

Data from 2019-2022 employee engagement surveys were analyzed and areas that fell below a response score of 7 out of 10 were considered areas in need of focus. Based on 2022 survey responses, in summary, the areas in need of focus include:

- Fostering an environment that promotes open and candid communication and feedback throughout all levels of the employees and the organization.
- Increasing professional development and growth activities.
- Ensuring staff have the capacity and resources needed to do their work effectively, find their work rewarding, and feel valued for their expertise.

All Staff Conference Feedback

In January 2023, WHS held an all staff conference, in which staff participated in table exercises to provide feedback and solutions to items in need of focus from the 2022 Employee Engagement Survey. Staff focused this exercise on feedback/recognition, staff capacity, communication, and professional development. The feedback and solutions identified in this exercise were considered and used to develop the 2024-2026 EI plan.

Individual Listening Sessions

IDEA Team Members and Division of Business Services Directors, and Division Administrators
In May 2023, the new WHS Workforce and Culture Program Officer met with all WHS Directors, Division/Office Leaders, Division of Business Services Directors, and members of the IDEA Team individually to get their perspective of workforce culture related strengths and pain points within their area, which were taken into consideration and used to develop the EI plan. In summary:

- Strengths: Universally, the strength voiced over and over is committed, passionate, and capable staff.
- Pain Points: Lack of attracting qualified, diverse candidates through current outreach efforts (many need specialized degrees); Desire for stronger communication and transparency and acting on feedback from leadership; Increased stress and burnout due to vacancies/lack of resources; Reactive instead of proactive approach to planning; Difficulty in recruiting, hiring, and onboarding seasonal staff.

By holistically reviewing and analyzing data and employee feedback from multiple sources, this gives WHS a baseline in which to build its 2024-2026 Equity and Inclusion Plan.

Equity and Inclusion Strategic Plan Wisconsin Historical Society- Goals and Strategies

WHS identified broad goals from our workforce analysis to address barriers to advancing equity and inclusion in each equity and inclusion focus area. Once those goals were identified, strategies to address the barriers were developed. Each strategy chosen is included in the WHS EI Workplan.

WHS Equity and Inclusion Strategic Plan – Workplan

The WHS workplan represents the strategies and actions for the WHS EI Plan. Each strategy identified to meet WHS equity and inclusion goals is listed, and the actions to achieve that strategy are described. Each action implemented is part of the process of achieving specific strategic outcomes. The comprehensive selection of activities to support the strategy may be short-term or long-term actions. KPIs gauge the progress of the actions taken to reach the desired outcome. KPIs provide clarity to the process for reaching short-term and long-term goals and allow teams to focus on efforts that fall short and require attention immediately to stay on track. KPIs support the monitoring and continuous improvement activities of the strategic plan. WHS also listed associated training identified to support the implementation for each focus area.

Communication Plan

Internal Methods of Communication

- A memorandum detailing the location of the WHS Equity and Inclusion (EI) Plan and outlining the employee the responsibility to read, understand, support, and implement equal opportunity and the EI Plan will be sent from the WHS Leadership or alternatively, the Workforce and Culture Program Officer, to all staff on an annual basis. This responsibility extends to employees in every type of position, including unclassified, classified, project, limited-term, volunteers, interns, and work-study personnel, and to Wisconsin Historical Foundation employees where applicable.
- The WHS EI Plan is available to all employees on the WHS internal website at <https://inside.wisconsinhistory.org/workforce-culture/>, and <https://inside.wisconsinhistory.org/doas/hr/>.
- WHS will make the plan available in a print copy or alternative formats to anyone who requests it.
- WHS, including Foundation where applicable, commitment to the EI plan will be communicated in all staff emails and all staff meetings when published, annually, and periodically.
- WHS EI Plan and WHS, including Foundation where applicable, commitment to the plan will be reinforced with supervisors and managers when published, annually, and on a periodic basis.
- The WHS Equity and Inclusion Plan will be reviewed during new employee orientation sessions.
- Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity statements and posters are prominently displayed and available in areas frequented and accessible to employees.

External Methods of Communication

- The WHS Equity and Inclusion Plan will be available on the WHS public website at <https://www.wisconsinhistory.org/>, and/or on the WHS public website employment page at <https://www.wisconsinhistory.org/Records/Article/CS15266>
- A print copy or alternative formats will be made available to anyone who requests it.
- The WHS public website employment page and job postings, includes the statement “an equal opportunity employer” and “women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.”
- Nondiscrimination and equal opportunity statements and posters are prominently displayed and available in areas frequented by and accessible to members of the public. Examples of posters displayed include: Equal Employment Opportunity is the Law, Employee Rights Under the Fair Labor Standards Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act Notice to the Public.
- A commitment to equal employment opportunity statement will be included in procurement contracts.

Communication Plan Oversight

The WHS Workforce and Culture Program Officer, or alternatively the HR Director (EI Officer), will ensure follow-through, oversight, and request feedback on all parts of the communication plan. They will:

- Ensure communication is an ongoing activity and will share the plan and successes, and request feedback with the entire agency and external stakeholders, at least quarterly.
- Schedule regular check-ins between the individual(s), subgroups, divisional leadership, and HR to monitor the plan's progress and communicate status and successes.
- Establish a tracking mechanism to document the communication plan to the agency.
- Request feedback on the resources and activities used to evaluate the implementation's effectiveness. Examples include new data-gathering tools or surveys, professional development, staffing changes that impact implementation, etc.
- Contact BEI for ongoing support, questions, and innovative next steps.

Implementation Plan and Agency Monitoring

This WHS Workforce and Culture Program Officer and the WHS HR Director (EI Officer), depending on function, or designee, will provide oversight, monitor, track, and evaluate the implementation of the WHS Equity and Inclusion Plan. Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

EI Officer or designee

- Monitor records of all employment activities to include hires, applicant flow data, transfers, promotions, terminations, discipline, compensation, training, and career development programs at all levels of the agency on an ongoing basis.
- Monitor imbalances in the workforce with respect to minorities, women, veterans, and individuals with disabilities on an ongoing basis.
- Track and review discrimination and harassment complaints, including trends, circumstances, decrease/increase, and resolutions on an ongoing basis.
- Track and review retention issues, i.e., upward mobility for underrepresented group members on an ongoing basis.
- Review the progress made to ensure access for individuals with disabilities on an ongoing basis.
- Review workforce data and reports with all levels of management, at least annually.

Workforce and Culture Program Officer or designee

- Meet with IDEA Team and/or designated subgroups to strategically implement and measure actions items as outlined on the Work Plan, at least monthly. This includes a process to: define goals, conduct research, map out risks, schedule milestones, assign tasks, and allocate resources.
- Require internal reporting by organizational units to assess how much plan objectives are being met and communicate these updates with WHS workforce, at least quarterly.
- Advise agency leadership of plan effectiveness and make recommendations to modify and/or improve performance where necessary on a bi-annual basis.
- Review the new employee and hiring manager's participation in equity and inclusion training on an ongoing basis.
